Dr. A. B. Coats and District Superintendent Scrivener Speak at Federated Church Anniversary—Resignation of Rev. A. L. Tedford.

The first anniversary of the Federated church was observed at the church Wednesday evening with a supper and social hour followed by the annual meeting. There were about 75 who sat down to the bountiful repast and after a very pleasant social hour the business meeting was called to order by Robert McNeely who made a few remarks. The roll call then took place and there was a generous response.

REV. A. L. TEDFORD.

sponse. The secretary read a number of letters from members who were unable to be present, expressing their regrets and wishing the members who were able to attend an encouraging meeting.

Clergymen Heard.

Rev. A. B. Coats, D. D., secretary of the Baptist convention was then heard. Dr. Coats congratulated the church on its success, but said he thought more might have been accomplished. The first year is one of getting acquainted and now all ought to pull together harmoniously not for the Methodist sake, but for the Baptist sake but for Christ's sake. He urged those present who were not members to join the church and work in the church for Christ as well as in other ways. Dr. Coats said he was pleased to be with the meeting and that he was much interested in the church.
Rev. George G. Scrivener, district superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal churches, followed with a few remarks, at the close of which he said it gave him much pleasure to attend the meeting and wished the church success during the coming year.
Rev. A. L. Tedford, pastor of the church, responded expressing his pleasure at the presence of Dr. Coats and Rev. Mr. Scrivener. Rev. Mr. Tedford said he was glad that Dr. Coats had called attention to the fact that they had not done all they could have done during the year and said he hoped that Dr. Coats' suggestion would be acted upon favorably.

Reports Read.

Following came the report of the secretary which was read and accepted. According to the treasurer's report the balance at the beginning of the year was 65 cents and the balance at the first of April, 1914, was $1.28. Brother Barnes moved that the report be accepted and the motion was seconded and carried.
The report of the board of directors was given through Robert McNeely. In the report Mr. McNeely referred to the singing books and the harmony that exists in the church at the present time. He also spoke of the board of assistance over the pastor.
The report of the nominating committee was then heard.
Mrs. McNeely tendered her resignation as secretary. A motion in support of the resignation was made by Brother Barnes and was seconded by Robert McNeely. Mrs. McNeely's resignation was accepted.

After some discussion as to the selection of a successor to Mrs. McNeely, a motion was made by Amos Baldwin to refer this nomination back to the nominating committee, the question to be decided at the next prayer meeting. The motion was carried. The following letter of resignation from Rev. A. L. Tedford was then read by the secretary:

Norwich, Conn.
To the Members of the Federated Church:
Brethren: Looking back upon the year of pleasant fellowship and friendships in the gospel work as leader of this people and with happy memories I feel at this time that it is best to tender my resignation as pastor of this body, leaving it free to act as the body may desire in respect to a future leader.
Sincerely,
REV. ALAN L. TEDFORD.
The motion was seconded and carried.

RESTORATION OF OCEAN BEACH

Plan For Wooden Walk and Bulkhead Agreed Upon—Appropriation of $5000 to Be Asked For Beach Front Cottage Owners Will All Have to Agree to Plan.

At a meeting of the cottage owners committee and the board of park commissioners of New London this week a plan to restore Ocean beach after the ravages of the recent storms, was agreed upon, and further steps are to be taken to put the plan into effect.
It contemplates a wooden walk and bulkhead of more substantial construction than that which existed prior to the recent storms, to be built at a cost to cottage owners of not more than $2 per linear foot. A plan of this character was agreed upon at a meeting of the park commissioners and the owners' committee, consisting of Lucius E. Whiton, William T. Hopson and Carley Congdon. Captain Thomas A. Scott was present in an advisory capacity.
The owners' committee had been appointed to inspect such plans as had been prepared by the park commission, with the understanding that they should report to the owners as a whole, who would then announce their decision. It was generally understood, however, that a concrete walk and bulkhead would be considered too expensive by the cottage owners.

The park commissioners had two plans to suggest at Tuesday evening's meeting. One was for concrete construction on the plan previously outlined, the cost of which to property owners would be about $12 per foot. The other plan was for a wooden walk and bulkhead which could be built at an expense to owners not in excess of $3 a foot. The owners' committee reached a conclusion that wood would be used enough for the purpose and decided to recommend such a plan to the cottage owners.

MARCH FIRE RECORD
SHOWED 26 CALLS.
Total Probable Loss of $2,500, Compared to $11,000 in February.

The fire record of Norwich for March showed a probable total loss of about $2,500, as contrasted with a probable total loss in February of $11,000.
In March the Norwich department had 26 alarms to answer, six of them being false alarms and one a false alarm, which was from the box at the corner of Washington and School streets. Probably the largest loss was that occasioned by the fire this week at the house on Park street occupied by the families of Clarence E. Barber and Israel Rabinovitch, and the largest loss was by the fire in the basement of the John G. Potter building on Main street, just across the Preston bridge.
A number of the fires that called out the department had in them the makings of bad fires, but the firemen arrived so promptly and did such effective work that they were held down to small losses.

JENNIE WHIPPLE'S WILL.
Thomas Howe, Administrator, Brings Suit to Determine Construction.

In a suit brought by Thomas Howe, administrator, the superior court is to be asked to determine the will of Mrs. Jennie Whipple, formerly of this city, who died several months ago in New London. Papers in the suit were produced in the afternoon by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tibbels.
In her will Mrs. Whipple left "a house and lot" in Jefferson avenue, New London, to Mrs. May Maher. Adjoining the property bequeathed to Mrs. Maher is a vacant lot. There is some doubt as to whether the testator meant to will to Mrs. Maher only the house and lot which she owned, or whether she intended to give her the adjoining lot also. This is the point on which the court is asked to pass.

William T. May of New London, state president of the A. O. ried that Rev. Mr. Tedford's resignation be accepted, but it is not to become effective until the last Sunday in August. Rev. Mr. Tedford intends to further pursue his studies.

Finance Committee—Robert McNeely, S. D. Barnes, Amos Baldwin and Mrs. Mary Matthews.
Music Committee—Herbert I. Peckham, Miss Annie Fleischer and Miss Harrington.

The meeting adjourned after prayer by Rev. Mr. Tedford.

FUNERAL.
Michael Buckley.
At 8:15 o'clock Wednesday morning the funeral of Michael Buckley was held from his late home, 75 Mowry avenue, with a mass of requiem in St. Mary's church at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Fitzmaurice officiating. Mrs. M. L. Slaney rendered Pater Noster, and as a waiting hymn came to Face. The bearers were Cornelius Mahoney, Stephen, Timothy and William Ahearn, Patrick Redding and Michael Trimmins. Burial took place in St. Mary's cemetery and a committal service was read at the grave by Rev. J. H. Fitzmaurice. The large attendance there was a wealth of beautiful floral offerings. Undertaker Hourigan had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The Joy of Dancing Exercise
Very few women or men seem to care to fango or get Dancing Exercise unless they are assured the freedom from aching feet that Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic foot powder, has become almost a daily and hourly necessity in every community. Since the hold the foot-dancing parties has become almost a daily and hourly necessity in every community, the sale of Allen's Foot-Ease, the foot-dancing powder, has reached the high water mark. the other owners. It was suggested in this connection that interval construction might be more in keeping with the general light character of the cottages, in addition to being considerably more economical.
The plan presented by the commissioners is to bring the sand back so as to fill in the lots of the cottage owners on the beach front, where they have been washed away. Then at a point four feet from the private property line a walk eight feet in width is to be built. Steps probably five in number will lead to the beach. Piles will be driven at intervals to strengthen the bulkhead and its permanency will be further added to by two inch planking in front to hold the sand and water back.

After the owners' committee had reached this decision and had retired, the park commissioners voted to ask the New London court of common council at its meeting next Monday evening to approve an appropriation of not to exceed $5,000 for Ocean Beach Improvements. A special city meeting will then in all probability be called to vote on the proposition. If there is a quarter of a mill to be asked to the assessment.

Before any improvements are made, however, it will be necessary for all the property owners along the beach front to execute an agreement in proper legal form, binding them to carry out their part of the plan executed by the commissioners. If there fails to be unanimous agreement, the project will be nullified and each owner will be obliged to look out for his own property, the city contending it has no right building a board walk along the sand.

ARGUES THAT LICENSE SYSTEM IS ILLOGICAL.
Rev. C. H. Ricketts Speaks on Liquor Question at Shop Meeting.

Rev. C. H. Ricketts addressed the Y. M. C. A. shop meeting Wednesday held at the Richmond Radiator company. Mrs. L. O. Potter sang several songs, and the speaker, accompanied by Miss Letitia Kramer, Rev. Mr. Ricketts spoke on Why the Sale of Liquor Should be Prohibited, and in part said: In my talk a week ago little more was done than to introduce the subject. The liquor question is one of such proportions, and is so far reaching in its influence that one can touch the circumference only in a short speech. When we remember that this question has claimed the attention of some of the keenest minds the country has produced in the last 50 years, that every one of our state legislatures has dealt with it in one or more phases of the problem, that pulpit, platform and editorial chair have devoted much thought and space to the discussion, some idea may be gained of its size and importance.
Now the law of protection furnishes a powerful argument against the rum traffic and every other baneful influence. The foundation of this argument is grounded in nature, whose first law is that of self-preservation. The defenses built up around every bodily organ show this to be true. If a man is attacked by this waste and filthy element, he will instinctively defend himself. Now if the argument presented last week is valid, that alcohol is harmful to the body in the least, then it is a natural law, as natural for a man to defend himself from it, as from wolves and rattlesnakes. Someone will say that wolves and rattlesnakes strike their fangs into a man's flesh because they want to eat him, but a man drinks rum because he wants to. Very likely at first, but not at length. Some are born with an inherited taste for liquor, while others have not enough strength of will to resist it. Where nature does not furnish a man with defensive armor the state ought to make up the lack. And that means it ought to prohibit the drink shop.

Why Not Protect Ourselves.
We harm the individual from other harms, why not from rum? If a man is caught on the streets selling vile pictures to the boys and girls—we run him in. Everybody is satisfied if your youth must be protected. If a man, drunk or crazy, brandishes a revolver on the streets, or slashes the air with a razor, he is at once arrested as a nuisance to human life. If a man is found selling gambling, opium, cocaine, vodka, it would be looked upon as criminal, for the same reason. At agricultural fairs sometimes fakers slip in with their gambles. If detected, they are quietly taken to slip out. The same must be protected. It is doubtless true that these things: vile pictures, violators, razors, opium, cocaine, cocaine, substitute for gambling, have slain their thousands, but rum has slain its tens of thousands. Why, then, don't we run in the man who sells rum?
It is generally recognized that the state as well as the individual, has a right to protect itself. The state has the right to override the will of the individual. Through its laws the state says "thou shalt" or "thou shalt not." Its decrees are ultimatums. It can draft men into its service for the purposes of protection when by doing it may mean sure death to the individual. The greatest enemy to the state is rum—this state acknowledges in her laws against drunkenness. Why then should she permit a community to sell what she condemns as wrong for an individual to drink?

License System Illogical.
The license system is illogical from beginning to end. If rum selling is right why penalize the rum seller by exporting from him a big license fee? That is exactly what the license system does. It tells a man he may follow a certain trade and then punishes him for doing it. We don't treat other tradesmen in that way. The license system is a safe and sound business. The liquor trade is that some men want to drink, others, engaged in the business, want to have them hence let us go on destroying individuals and damning society.
